FSC APPOINTS COURTNEY ROBINSON AS COMMUNICATIONS ADVISOR

PROVIDENCIALES, Turks and Caicos Islands – Monday, January 12, 2026 –The Turks and Caicos Islands Financial Services Commission (FSC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Courtney Robinson as Communications Advisor, reinforcing the Commission’s strategic communications, public engagement, and stakeholder relations capacity.

Mr Robinson brings extensive experience in public relations, strategic communications, media management, and public-sector advisory, having served in senior leadership roles across government, statutory bodies, and international markets. His professional background includes leading high-profile communications initiatives, managing crisis communications, shaping policy-focused messaging, and serving as an official spokesperson in complex and highly visible environments.

Most recently, Mr. Robinson worked within the tourism and travel sector for over a decade for the Turks and Caicos Islands Government (Experience Turks and Caicos and the Turks and Caicos Tourism Board), where he led international, high-impact brand, marketing, and communications strategies that enhanced market positioning and strengthened stakeholder engagement for the destination. He previously served as Director of the Turks and Caicos Islands Government Information Service (GIS), where he was responsible for government-wide communications, crisis response, and media relations.

In his new role, Mr. Robinson will provide strategic counsel on internal and external communications, support public education and outreach initiatives, strengthen media relations, and contribute to building public confidence in the regulatory framework governing the financial services sector.

Commenting on his appointment, Mr Robinson said: “Joining the Financial Services Commission at this important juncture in its evolution is both an honour and a responsibility. I am deeply committed to serving the Turks and Caicos Islands through clear, transparent, and purposeful communication that builds trust, strengthens institutional credibility, and ensures stakeholders are informed and engaged.”

Kenisha Bacchus, Managing Director (Ag) of the Financial Services Commission, welcomed the appointment, stating: “We are pleased to welcome Mr Robinson to the Commission. His depth of experience in strategic communications and public-sector advisory will be a valuable asset as we continue to strengthen stakeholder engagement and maintain confidence in the Turks and Caicos Islands’ financial services regulatory framework.”
