TCI, Antigua & India celebrated for Heritage Day 2026.

FSC CELEBRATES TCI HERITAGE AND CARIBBEAN DIVERSITY

PROVIDENCIALES, Turks and Caicos Islands; Tuesday, 10th November 2026 — The Turks and Caicos Islands Financial Services Commission (the Commission) celebrated the culture, history, traditions and flavours of the Islands, while recognising the diversity of Caribbean communities represented across its workforce.

On Friday 8 October, staff at the Commission's Providenciales office marked Heritage Day at its Venetian Road premises. Later that month, on Friday 30 October, colleagues at the Grand Turk office brought Heritage Month to a close with an afternoon celebrating history and culture.

Staff and guests enjoyed traditional local delicacies and explored displays of historical and cultural artefacts, newspaper clippings and other materials. More than eleven (11) nationalities are represented in the Commission's workforce, and colleagues showcased eight through cultural stations, sharing stories and introducing one another to different traditions.

The displays offered an opportunity to reflect on the people, events and customs that have helped shape the Islands. The celebration also recognised the wider Caribbean heritage represented at the Commission, including colleagues with connections to Guyana, India, Grenada, Antigua, Saint Vincent, Jamaica, Saint Lucia, The Bahamas, Trinidad and Tobago, Haiti and the Turks and Caicos Islands.

TURKS AND CAICOS ISLANDS FINANCIAL SERVICES COMMISSION

"Heritage is particularly meaningful for us at the Financial Services Commission, because our organisation is enriched by culture, history and diversity. We are proud to celebrate the Turks and Caicos Islands and, at the same time, the wider Caribbean heritage represented among our people," said Mrs Kenisha Bacchus, Acting Managing Director.

Colleagues and guests came together to enjoy the displays, sample traditional dishes and celebrate the Islands' rich cultural heritage.

The festivities provided an opportunity to learn from one another, share experiences and strengthen connections across the Commission.

The Commission thanks everyone who contributed to the displays and activities, as well as all those who took part. By celebrating the heritage of the Turks and Caicos Islands and embracing the diversity of its people, the Commission continues to strengthen its sense of community.
